NEW ALLEN POLICE OFFICERS

On Friday January 12, 2007 Allen Chief of Police Bill Rushing presided over the swearing in ceremony of four new Allen Police Officers. The new officers have completed the Dallas County Sheriff's Academy, Basic Police Science Class #118. The next step for the new officers is the Field Training Program which starts next Monday. The four new officers of the Allen Police Department are:

Chance Graves of Blue Ridge, Texas who is a recent graduate of the Collin County Community College.

Thomas Mulkey of Kirbyville, Texas who served in the United States Marine Corp with the final rank of First Sergeant.

Sean Rivera of Ozone Park, New York who started his career with the MTA-Long Island railroad as a locomotive engineer.

Upon obtaining any further pertinent information concerning this incident, an updated News Release will be disseminated.
