INFANT DEATH

On Friday, April 30, 2010, at approximately 1544 hours, the Allen Police Department and the Allen Fire Department responded to the 1100 block of Collin Drive in reference to an approximate 2 ½ month old infant that was not breathing.

CPR was performed on the infant by the caretaker on scene, who was later relieved by the Allen Fire Department. The child was transported to Medical Center McKinney by ambulance where death was pronounced at approximately 1557 hours by Dr. Yemea. The infant's next of kin was notified.

Investigators with the Collin County Children's Advocacy Center as well as the Crime Scene Unit were called to the scene. The specific cause of death is under investigation. The name of the infant will not be released.

Upon obtaining any further pertinent information concerning this incident, an updated News Release will be disseminated.
